

-Residential Zone Parking FAQs

Chicago residents living within an established Residential Parking Zone may be eligible to include a Zone Number on their City Sticker and/or purchase Chicago residential Parking Daily Permits, which are guest passes that are valid for 24 hours upon the date and time of display. Buy at an additional cost of $25 per year (prorated for varying durations). Upon paying to add a zone, the Zone number that corresponds with the signs on your street will appear at the top of your City Sticker. If the word NONE appears on your vehicle sticker, you do not have a Residential Parking Zone on your sticker.

The following restrictions apply:

- Residents purchasing Residential Zone Parking for their Chicago City Vehicle Sticker must reside at a Chicago address within a designated residential parking zone, which must be demonstrated by proof of address.
- The Residential Zone Parking Permit expires at the same time as the City Vehicle Sticker on which it was printed.
- The Office of the City Clerk reserves the right to deny sale of the zone parking permit if it is determined the purchaser has attempted to violate the rules regulating the Chicago Residential Zone Parking Permit.

Proof of Residency

To establish current residency within a Residential Parking Zone, the purchaser must present the following documentation:

- A valid driver's license or state ID
- OR
- Any government issued ID such as a U.S. Passport or U.S. Military ID

AND any of the following documents that include the same name and the updated and complete address:

- A current mortgage or lease;
- A bill for any of the following utilities or services:
- Property tax;
- Water, gas or electric;
- Landline phone (cell phone bill NOT accepted);
- Satellite or cable television;
- USPS Change of Address Confirmation.

If you already have a Customer Code, you may purchase online at EZ>BUY. If you would like to have a Customer Code created for you to purchase passes online, please email copies of your photo ID and proof of address to ezbuy@cityofchicago.org.

The Residential Zone Parking Permit expires at the same time as the City Vehicle Sticker on which it was printed.

The Office of the City Clerk reserves the right to deny sale of the zone parking permit if it is determined the purchaser has attempted to violate the rules regulating the Chicago Residential Zone Parking Program.

The Office of the City Clerk reserves the right to void any order – and void shipment of the order – if it is determined purchase was made fraudulently.

Once an order is placed online, IT CANNOT BE CANCELLED.

Daily permits are not exchangeable for any other product.

Daily permits are not refundable.

A customer's expiration date for their Resident record for their ability to purchase Daily Permits will vary, depending on documentation provided.

Residential Zone Parking limits parking on designated streets in densely-populated or highly trafficked areas to Chicago residents and their guests only, for either all times or for certain days/hours.

Vehicles parking in a residential Parking Zone during applicable days/hours must display a Chicago City Vehicle Sticker with Residential Zone Parking or a Chicago Residential Parking Daily Permit. The Zone number on either the Chicago City vehicle Sticker or the Daily Residential Parking Permit must match the Residential Parking Zone permit number posted on the street signs.

Chicago residents living within an established Residential Parking Zone are eligible for purchasing Chicago Residential Parking Daily Permits, which are guest passes that are valid for 24 hours upon the date and time of display. Be certain to write the date and time on these permits in ink and make no additional markings in the space provided.

Please note, daily permits expire each year on December 31. Passes being purchased now will expire on December 31, 2021. The expiration date is printed on the back of the product.

Chicago Residential Parking Daily Permits $8 for 1 sheet of 15 permits, $16 for 2 sheets of 15 permits (30) with a limit of three permit sheets at $24.00 – or 45 permits – per household per 30-day period. Please allow 12 business days for order delivery by mail.

Passes reported lost or never received 90 days or later from the purchase date are not eligible for reissue or refund.
